Description

Blank audio cassette AT64 - Type I - DATATEX

DATATEX, already a manufacturer of audio cassettes in the past, from the 1980s to the early 2000s, given the awakening and growing interest of this market, has decided to undertake the production of these products again.

After not easy research of the necessary raw materials gave birth to the new AT series.

AT series is a good quality ferric oxide tape cassette, high sliding precision mechanics with 5 screws.
